

Insperity Capital Growth Program

Where human capital meets private capital™

Whether you're working to acquire a business or wanting to improve it and resell for a profit, the Insperity® Capital Growth Program can provide the HR essentials you need to help maximize your investment.

Our team will help identify the HR process gaps that can get in the way of making a profitable deal. We can:

- Help assess the human capital operational expenses of a portfolio company
- Support PE firms with a comprehensive HR review
- Assist with navigating the transition to minimize the HR complexity of an acquisition
- Review and clean up HR operations such as policies, procedures and compliance
- Provide an HR infrastructure for your acquisitions

Minimize disruptions to the deal

HR-related risk reduction

Our team stays abreast of changing employment laws and provides HR best practices guidance to help your team maintain compliance. Rely on the depth of our experience in EPLI, workers' compensation, claims resolution and anti-harassment training.

Human capital infrastructure

Streamline essential HR processes and get human capital clarity with tools and resources – all in one comprehensive human capital management platform.

Return on investment

Improve the success potential of your portfolio companies by focusing on the HR element. A solid HR infrastructure could make companies more attractive and be the competitive edge needed in an equity/stock sale.

“Acquisitions are complex, and they take a lot of work behind the scenes, but it gets easier and easier to add companies with Insperity’s help.”

— Mike Drury, CFO, StoneCalibre
